

CASE STUDY | REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT

JEFFERSON SQUARE

MULTI-FAMILY RESIDENTIAL BUILDING

US MULTI-FAMILY INVESTMENT

Investment Overview

Lesha Bank LLC (Public) ("Lesha Bank") successfully completed the exit of Jefferson Square, its first-ever US real estate investment and the second US real estate exit, in April 2022.

Acquiring a 95% stake in the 304-unit class A multifamily residential building in June 2017, situated in Baltimore, Maryland, across the famous John Hopkins Hospital, the investment was exited just under five years after purchase.

Investors received their full capital, along with an 8% annual distribution. The property was built in 2014 and was a great addition to Lesha Bank's real estate investment portfolio, meeting its 5-year investment target, yielding an average IRR of 9% against the initial target of ~8.5%, net of all fees, costs, and taxes.
