

01 CEO MESSAGE

I am delighted to share another edition of the Lesha Bank quarterly newsletter which aims to keep you updated on our most recent achievements and exciting developments. This year has been off to a steady start, and we are thrilled to provide you with the latest updates from Q3.

Our business units have been working tirelessly to bring forth several captivating investment opportunities. These opportunities are carefully curated to align with our strategic goals, allowing us to further amplify our potential for growth and success.

We understand that the current investment landscape presents its unique set of challenges. However, we remain optimistic as we actively implement corrective measures and prudent controls to navigate these challenges effectively.

I am proud to have joined the Lesha Bank family in the past few months, and I am truly excited about what lies ahead. Together, with the support of our dedicated team and esteemed stakeholders, we are determined to close this year on a high note.

Mohammed Ismail Al Emadi | CEO
